

What are 'cookies'?

Cookies are text files that a Web server can store on a user's hard disk. Cookies allow a Web site to store information (sites visited or credentials for accessing the site) on a user's machine and later retrieve it. The pieces of information are stored as name-value pairs. Cookies are designed to be readable only by the Web site that created them. A name-value pair is simply a named piece of data. It is not a program, and it cannot "do" anything. A Web site can retrieve only the information that it has placed on your machine. It cannot retrieve information from other cookie files or any other information from your machine. For more information on how to handle cookies in Internet Explorer, read the Microsoft.com Cookie FAQ.

If you receive an error message similar to the one below, you'll have to delete the cookies in your Browser

In your Browser (Internet Explorer 7):

GoTo 'Tools' and 'Internet Options'

The screenshot shows the Internet Explorer 7 browser window displaying the University of Pretoria website. The 'Tools' menu is open, and 'Internet Options' is highlighted. The website content includes a navigation menu on the left, a main header with the university logo, a central banner with the text 'Welcome to the University of Pretoria', and several news and spotlight sections. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the start button and several open applications.

Tools Menu:

- Delete Browsing History...
- Pop-up Blocker
- Phishing Filter
- Manage Add-ons
- Subscribe to this Feed...
- Feed Discovery
- Windows Update
- Windows Messenger
- Sun Java Console
- Internet Options

Website Content:

Navigation Menu:

- About UP
- Management & governance
- Community Engagement
- Research
- Faculties
- Programmes & courses
- Fees & finance
- Services & administration
- Student Affairs
- Campuses
- Information for new students
- TuksSport
- hpc
- Centenary
- Quality Unit
- Campus enterprises

Faculties:

- Economic and Management Sciences
- Education
- Engineering, Built

Welcome to the University of Pretoria

Another exciting year at UP is almost over. Spring is in the air and the Jacarandas are blooming. That means that the exams are also drawing near. During the next two months, with classes ending on 26 October, the campuses will be buzzing as final preparations for exams are done.

After the holidays, we will be returning to centenary festivities as the University of Pretoria celebrates its 100th birthday in February 2008. In commemoration of the centenary, a birthday celebration is being planned for Friday, February 8. Many other exciting plans and events are also in the pipeline for this milestone event.

News

Tuks honours Alumni Leaders Who Excel - 01/11/2007

The University of Pretoria will honour twelve of the giants of South African business, arts and science at their annual Laureate Ball on Saturday, 17th November 2007.

Spotlight on...

A blue-blooded Tukkier for life - 15/10/2007

In an era of professionalism at the highest level, Heyneke Meyer is somewhat of an enigma in rugby. He personifies professionalism through the three Ds of determination, dedication and decisiveness. Yet behind this tough exterior is a family man, a man of faith and - above all - a

More information for ...

- Prospective Students
- Current Students
- Alumni
- Staff
- International Students

Your quick links to ...

- Academic Programmes
- Apply for admission
- Campuses
- Research
- Library (AIS)
- BE at UP
- CE at UP
- Support Services
- Student Life
- Calendar
- UP News & Events
- Credit Card Payments
- Jobs@UP
- Maps & Directions
- Contact Us

Tab on left hand side, called: 'General'

Click on 'Delete' under 'Browsing History'

Click on 'Delete Cookies'

Click on 'Yes' in next window

Close all the Internet Explorer Windows and Restart/Open your Browser again.