How do I ...

Do referencing

Consult your departmental guide/study guide for the specifications and guidelines for referencing of the relevant department.

Harvard referencing technique

Printed Books
Author(s) of book - surname and initials, Year of publication, Title of book - italicised, Edition, Publisher, Place of publication.

Printed Journal article Sources from the Internet
Author(s) of article - surname and initials Year of publication, ‘Title of article’ - in single quotation marks, journal name - italicised, volume number, issue number, page number(s).

Internet
Author (person or organisation) Year (site created or revised), Name (and place if applicable) of sponsor of the site, date of viewing the site (date month year), <URL>.

e-Books

Electronic journals
Author(s) of article - surname and initials Year of publication, ‘Title of article’ - in single quotation marks, journal name - italicised, volume number, issue number, page number(s), viewed 8 Nov 2004, http://www.catchword.com/

Lecturer Notes
SURNAME, INITIAL(S). Year of presentation. Lecture title, lecture notes distributed in the topic module code (capitalised) title of module. Teaching organisation, the location on date. Do not use italics.

In-text referencing, the example below places emphasis on the writer Rajaratnam (2001, p.1005) concludes that, ‘The cost to the nation’s health of working out of phase with our biological clocks is probably incalculable at present.’ (Rajaratnam 2001, p.1005).
APA referencing technique

Printed Books
Author surname, author initial(s). (Year of publication). Title of the book (edition number if it is not the 1st edition). Place of publication: Name of the publisher.

Printed Journal article
Author surname, author initial(s). (Year of publication). Title of the article. Title of the Journal, volume number (issue number), page numbers of the article.

Sources from the internet
Author/editor surname, author/editor initial(s). (Year, month and date of last update or copyright). Title of the page/document. Month, date and year of retrieval (if necessary), and the URL.

e-Books
Cite electronic books as printed books unless only available electronically. To reference the entire book use “Available from” and the URL. Use “Retrieved from” when directing readers to specific material. Cite the same as for the print version but include either a Digital Object Identifier (DOI) or a URL at the end. If a DOI is available, include it at the end of the citation. The database name is not necessary. If no DOI is available, include the URL at the end of the citation.

Electronic journals
Use exact URL for articles freely available. Use the journal homepage URL for those available by subscription (not the database URL in which it was seen). Do not use a retrieval date. Indicate material type in square brackets after title.

Lecturer Notes
Include university name and location. When outside SA give city, state and country unless it is part of the university name.

In-text referencing (example)
This was seen in an Australian study (Conger, 1979).

Vancouver referencing technique

Printed Books

Printed Journal article
Author’s surname, Initials, Title of article. Title of Journal. [abbreviated] Year of publication Month date; Volume number (issue number): page numbers.

Sources from the internet with Author
Author/Editor/Organisation’s name. Title of the page [homepage on the Internet]. Place of publication: Publisher’s name; [updated year month day; cited year month day]. Title of page being cited. [number of screens]. Available from: URL.

e-Books

Electronic journals
Author’s surname, Initials, Title of article. Abbreviated Title of Journal [serial on the Internet]. Year of publication Month day [cited Year Month Day]; Volume number (Issue number): [about number of pages or screens]. Available from: URL.

Lecture Notes

In-text referencing
Example: ... as one author has put it “the darkest days were still ahead” [1]; which is well documented in the literature. [2-3] this proves that “the darkest days were still ahead”. [1]

When multiple references are cited at a given place in a text, use a hyphen to join the first and last numbers that are inclusive, e.g. [6-8]. Use commas (no spaces) to separate non-inclusive numbers e.g. [2,3,4,5,7,9] is abbreviated to [2-5,7,9].

Placement of citation numbers with a text should be carefully considered, e.g. a particular reference may be relevant to only part of a sentence. However, as a general rule, reference numbers should be placed outside full stops and commas, inside colons and semi-colons.
